Calling All Self-Advocates

What is Self-Advocacy? Self-Advocacy is learning how to speak up for yourself, making your own decisions about your own life, learning how to get information so that you can understand things that are of interest to you, finding out who will support you in your journey, knowing your rights and responsibilities, problem solving, listening and learning, reaching out to others when you need help and friendship, and learning about self-determination.

Why is Self-Advocacy important? So that you have the knowledge needed to succeed and are given the chance to participate in decisions that are being made about your life - See more at : <http://www.inclusionbc.org/self-advocates>

Vancouver: November 2, December 7

Online version coming soon! Reply to: news=planinstitute.ca@mail180.atl171.mcdlv.net to be notified!

Becoming well-informed about wills, trusts and estate planning is necessary to secure the financial future of your loved one with a disability. In this workshop, estate-planning attorney Halldor Bjarnason & Ken Kramer explain how to arrange your estate, prepare a will, and the various ins and outs of setting up a trust specifically for your relative or loved-one with a disability.

 Are you picking someone up at our Pathways 123 Franklyn Rd location? As you know we are the transfer point for HandyDART and as such it can become very busy here come 3PM. For your convenience and for the safety of individuals it is suggested; if possible, to schedule pick up at 2:45PM or after 3:15PM - Thank You
