POLICY: HOME SHARING

Applies to: Home Share Contractors

PREAMBLE

Home sharing is a rewarding way to support an adult with a diverse-ability in a family or individual's home.

POLICY

Home share providers receive a thorough screening which includes:

- Satisfactory criminal record checks for all adults in home.
- Satisfactory background check and references.
- Satisfactory home study, health and safety check and interview.
- Physician's Certification of good Physical and Mental Health.

Requirements for home share providers include:

- Current First Aid/CPR certification.
- Food Safe certification (within three months).
- Valid driver's license and satisfactory driver's abstract.
- Home insurance that covers the individual's belongings
- Service Provider Privacy and Information Management course.
- Community Living BC Standards for Home Sharing online course.
- Previous experience supporting individuals with diverse-abilities.
- Mandt Training within three months (provided by Pathways).

Pathways will not contract with Pathways employees to provide home share services. Those employees contracting with Pathways prior to the date of policy change, November 19, 2018 will be "grandfathered." Pathways will continue to contract with them to provide home share services to the individuals they currently support. Pathways will not contract with the grandfathered employee to support additional individuals or if the individual that is residing with them moves out.

The service is monitored or checked by the designated Pathways Abilities Society management person.

Each year, all those involved in home sharing receive a Pathways Abilities Society satisfaction survey.

Home share providers are monitored as stated in their contract however at least three times each year a Pathways staff goes to the home sharing home and completes a written review of the service to make sure the person is safe, receiving the support and service they want and that the contract is being completed as it was written. Pathways also contacts the person's support network to get as much information as possible to make sure everyone is happy.
